Mrs. Sarah Thorne Foutz Died Sunday, Was Buried Tuesday-Was Prominent In Church and Member of Leading Family.

Mrs. Sarah Foutz ,wife of Jacob Despondency Foutz, passed away Sunday after an illness of two months. The cause of death was heart trouble. She was seventy years of age, was prominent in church work, and was a member of one of the leading families and first settlers of Pleasant Grove.

She leaves a husband, Jacob Foutz, and eight children, Fred Foutz of Pleasant Grove, Mrs. John M. Smith of Mammoth, J. E. Foutz of Pleasant Grove, Mrs. C. J. Evans of Pleasant Grove, George T. Foutz of Pocatello, J. H. Foutz and Mrs. J. C. Fitzgerald of Pleasant Grove. She is a sister of George, Joseph E., David and Robert Thorne of Pleasant Grove, and Mrs. James Cobbley of Blackfoot, Idaho.

She was born in Nottingham, England, August 10, 1844. When six years of age she came to Utah with her parents, David and Elizabeth Thorne, the family locating in Pleasant Grove. January 11, 1866, she was married to Jacob Foutz. They located the same year on the lot where she died and which was their only home for 48 years. She was a devoted Latter Day Saint, and served eight years as councilor and eight years as president of the Pleasant Grove Relief Society. during which time she was a great blessing to many sick and bereaved.

Funeral services were held in the Tabernacle Tuesday. W. L. Hayes presided. The other speakers were Mrs. Louise Halliday of the Relief Society Stake Board, L. P. Lund, Ezra Walker, F C. Banks and Bishop E. D. Olpin. Mrs. A. L. Richardson sang "I Know That My Redeemer Lives," and Mr. F. D. Moore sang "Consolation." The choir, under the leadership of B. Morck, supplied the opening and closing numbers. Alexander Bullock delivered the invocation and John C. Coulam the benediction. Bis. hop Cobbley dedicated the grave.

highly artistic and much appreciated by the big audience. Every number was well rendered, and the whole performance justified the high esteem with which the musical departments of the High School is regarded by the people of Pleasant Grove. Prof. Overlade is to be congratulated over the success of Sunday night's affair.

Causes Suicide

Gideon Peterson Grows Despondent Over Financial Reverses and Ends Trouble With Corbolic Acid.

Saturday evening Mrs. Gideon Petrson prepared a good supper in anticipation of her husband's return from a peddling trip to Salt Lake City. The night being bitterly cold, she had also made up a good fire for his reception, and once when she heard the gate open she went out to Mrs. T. A. LOYEll was striken prostrate with the sad news that he had just passed away at Murray, from the effects of having taken a bottle of corbolic acid.

From the best information it appears that about 4 o'clock Mr. Peterson came in the rear of a Murray pool hall and called for a drink of Morgan rendered a decision in favor that there was something wrong, and detecting the strong odor on his deeded some time before his death to breath at once rushed him to a physi- his daughter, Mrs. T. Guy Robinson, E. D. Olpin and Jos. Dickerson went to Murray Monday in an automobile and brought the body to Pleasant Grove.

The funeral was held at the residence of Joseph Dickerson Thursday. The Salt Lake papers had an exagerated story of an estrangement between Mr. Peterson and his wife, which was utterly without foundation. It was well known that the unfortunate man had several financial obligations which were pressing.
